

SUBMARINE

C D G Em
Love goes deeper than any submarine
C D G Em
And love is harder to break than a tough marine
C D G D A
And love is wider than the greatest canyon wall
C G
Love can't bear to see you hurt
D C G C G
He'd rather take the fall

Love is stronger than the force of gravity
And love goes higher than any spaceship will ever be
And love goes farther than to the very farthest star
Love don't care 'bout where you've been
He takes you where you are

Love is softer than an orthopedic bed.
And love is louder than you could scream til you were red.
And love goes faster than Superman can fly.
Love knows all about you
And he's crying when you cry

Love is nicer than your mommy ever is.
And love is smarter than the smartest science whiz
And love is wiser than the oldest, greyest sage.
Love could write a book on you
And memorize each page.

(instrumental: F C G - F C A D C D G C A D7 G)

And love can fight off whatever's killing you.
You know it doesn't matter what you told love to do,
Love will be there, no matter where "there" is.
Love will take you in his arms and comfort you with this:

"I will always be there and I'll see you to the end."
Love will always be your biggest fan and closest friend.

(end on G)
